

Dr. Klinghardt – Unique Healer

I had the opportunity to attend Dr. Klinghardt's three day conference on "Lyme Disease and Other Neurotoxin-Mediated Illnesses" in Bellevue, Washington in January. The conference was an amazing experience and I learned an incredible amount of information. The picture here is of me, Dr. Klinghardt, and his former nurse, Andreanna Vaughan.

I urge everyone with Lyme Disease or other chronic illness to read Dr. Klinghardt's comprehensive article "Lyme Disease – A Look Beyond Antibiotics" and also to review my notes from the conference. Both can be found on my Protocols page.

I am just now starting to incorporate several new products from what I learned at the conference. These include Phospholipid Exchange, Cilantro tincture, Matrix Electrolytes, Chlorella Pyrenoidosa, and of course, Freeze-Dried Garlic.

I left the conference with two things: 1) a much better understanding of Lyme Disease and the various treatment options and 2) more hope for recovery than I had at any point prior to this exciting event. Knowledge is power and it is critically important for anyone with Lyme Disease to spend significant time researching and understanding their condition. Few doctors are true healers, but I came away from this experience with a deep inner-belief that Dr. Klinghardt is exactly that – a unique healer.

Treatment Update

I have been using the KMT23 microcurrent device from Dr. Klinghardt for the past six weeks. I do believe that the device is an excellent option for those of us with Lyme Disease and all of the related co-infections. I have seen some progress with the device – in particular with one knee that has been problematic for years. If you are interested in more information, contact Nancy at BioToolsInc@aol.com.

I continue to use the Rechts-Regulat formula from Germany for addressing hypercoagulation. Just this week, I had ten vials of blood drawn and the phlebotomist said "What a pretty color. I wish I could have a blouse that looked that lovely." I also found an English translation of a book which talks about the product. You can find it here.

More information on my current treatment protocol including a full listing of supplements can be found here.

Exciting Products

I continue to hear from people that didn't realize how important filtering your shower water is. If you are interested in learning more, visit here.

I also continue to receive positive feedback on the detox foot pads from many people with Lyme Disease. Information on the detox pads can be found here.

Until Next Time

Thanks for all your kind words, inspiring stories, thoughtful direction, and for your compassion. Live, love, and laugh each and every day for tomorrow is not a given.
